To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to recommend the services of Natalie Hébert of Edventure Tours to you. During the past five years, our school's International Travel Study group has worked directly with Natalie. Natalie was professional and intuitive to our group's needs. She has consistently listened to our requests and organized fabulous itineraries for our students. Natalie has gone to great lengths to ensure our students have a positive travel experience and memories that will last a lifetime.

One particular incident illustrates Natalie's commitment and concern for her clients. While in Rome, a couple of students in our group were robbed. Items were stolen from their hotel rooms. Not only did Natalie advise us on what we needed to do, she also arranged with the hotel and her own company to compensate the students for their loss. She handled the situation in a professional manner and made sure our students had a positive experience.

Please consider Natalie Hébert of Edventure Tours for any school or group travel needs you may have. Our team recommends her and we look forward to working with her again.

Sincerely,

Pam Russell, Janet Walker, Malik Salman
